We are truly honored to be placing this offer on your lovely home

We absolutely adore your home! We just found out we are expecting our 2nd child and the need for more space had us worried. The moment we saw your home, we knew this had the perfect amount for us! The amazing deck, killer back yard for a nice play set, and the room in the basement for extra toys for the kiddos! Please consider our offer, It would mean the world to us!
